Kwan Bok Kim

Plaintiff,

v.

J Beauty Supply Corp. Soon Hwan Yang
aka David Yang and Gap Soon Yang, Defendants,

Index No. 20-CV-4166

COMPLAINT

JURY DEMAND

Plaintiff, Kwan Bok Kim, through his attorneys, for his Complaint against J Beauty Supply Corp., Soon Hwan Yang aka David Yang and Gap Soon Yang (“Defendants”), states as follows:

NATURE OF PLAINTIFF'S CLAIMS

1. This lawsuit arises under the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. §201, et. seq. (“FLSA”), and the New York Labor Law (“NYLL”), N. Y. Lab. Law §650 et seq. for Defendants' failure to pay proper minimum and overtime wages to Plaintiff. During the course of his employment by Defendants, Plaintiff regularly worked over eight (8) hours per day and over forty (40) hours per week. Defendants did not pay his minimum or overtime wage properly. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants' failure to pay overtime wages was willful and intentional.

THE PARTIES

3. Plaintiff was at all times relevant hereto an individual employed in the State of New York by Defendants.

4. Plaintiff was at all times relevant hereto residing in the State of New York.

5. Plaintiff was at all times relevant hereto non-exempt employee within the meaning of the FLSA, and NYLL, and the implementing rules and regulations of the FLSA and NYLL.

6. For the period commencing in or about 1997, until March 23, 2020, Plaintiff Kwan Bok Kim regularly and customarily at the specific instructions and demand of Defendants actually performed work for Defendants in excess of eight (8) hours per day and forty (40) hours per week.

7. Plaintiff started his work at 9 a.m. and ended at 7:00 p.m. from Monday through Saturday and he worked from 10 a.m. until 5:30 p.m. on Sundays. He regularly worked for 6 days per week, occasionally he worked for 4 to 5 days per week.

8. Defendants paid him $1,000.00 per week when he worked for 6 days a week. They paid him $835.00 when he worked for 5 days. Defendants paid Plaintiff $165 per day regardless of the hours he worked in a day.

9. During the liability period, Defendants did not require Plaintiff to use a timecard to keep track of all hours he worked.

10. During the liability period, Defendant was considered a small business with less than 11 employees pursuant to NYLL §652-1(a)(ii).

11. Plaintiff regularly worked more than 50 hours a week and was never paid the proper hourly compensation nor was he paid for all hours worked.

12. Plaintiff performed work for Defendants the said hours worked as an expressed condition of his continued employment.

13. Plaintiff performed manual labor for Defendants.
14. Plaintiff was assigned to said manual labor by Defendants.
15. Plaintiff was not required to possess any specialized skills in order to do the assigned work for Defendants.
16. Plaintiff did not have to supply his own tools and equipment in connection with his work for Defendants.
17. Plaintiff was required to report to work for Defendants at a certain time.
18. Plaintiff could not set his own hours of work for Defendants.
19. Plaintiff was not compensated at the proper overtime rate for hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours per week.
20. Defendants Soon Hwan Yang and Gap Soon Yang are and were at all relevant times hereto engaged in the business of a beauty supply store.
21. Defendant J Beauty Supply Corp. is and was at all relevant times hereto engaged in interstate commerce.
22. Defendants Soon Hwan Yang and Gap Soon Yang ("Yangs") managed, supervised, established, and administered the terms and conditions of Plaintiff's employment.
23. Defendants Yangs participated in and approved of the unlawful pay practices of the business J Beauty Supply Corp. in the State of New York.
24. Defendants Yangs were involved in assigning work to Plaintiff.
25. Defendants Yangs had the power and authority to discipline Plaintiff.
26. Defendants Yangs exercised authority over the terms and conditions of Plaintiff's employment and how much and the manner in which Plaintiff was paid.

27. Defendants Yangs hired Plaintiff.
28. Defendants Yangs were in charge of paying employees.
29. Defendants Yangs told Plaintiff where to work and when to work.
30. Defendants employed Plaintiff to do work for them in the State of New York.
31. Defendants, during all relevant times, were subject to the FLSA due to the nature of their business and revenues earned.
32. Defendants provided the tools and equipment and materials for Plaintiff to do his job for Defendants.
33. Defendants held Plaintiff out as an employee.
34. Defendants employed and paid Plaintiff as their employee.
35. Defendants are employers within the meaning of the term of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. §203(d), and the NYLL.
36. No exemption from overtime wages applied to Plaintiff's employment with Defendants.
37. Defendants never obtained legal advice or counsel that their overtime pay practices and/or policies were compliant with state and federal wage-hour laws.
38. Defendants never obtained any written guidance from the U.S. Department of Labor concerning their pay practices and policies.
39. No exemption from overtime applies or applied to Plaintiff when he worked more than 40 hours in a workweek for Defendants.
40. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff overtime premium for all hours worked in excess of 40 hours per workweek.

41. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff the proper hourly compensation for all hours worked.
